In order to make use of the warranty service, the warrantor must be able to investigate the warranty claim (e.g. by sending in the goods). Care must be taken to ensure that the goods are not damaged during transport by using secure packaging. A copy of the invoice for the goods must be included with the warranty claim so that the guarantor can check that the warranty period has been met. A repair order must also be sent so that all the details of the claimant are available. There is no charge for justified warranty claims. The unit will be processed and repaired under warranty within 5 working days. If it is found that one of the above reasons has caused the damage, the customer will be sent a non-binding cost estimate free of charge.

This manufacturer's warranty does not limit your statutory rights against us under the contract of sale concluded with us. This warranty is without prejudice to your statutory rights against us. The manufacturer's guarantee therefore does not affect your statutory rights, but rather extends your legal position.

If the purchased item is defective, you can always contact us within the framework of the statutory guarantee, irrespective of whether there is a guarantee claim or whether the guarantee has been used.

Complaints:

Complaints can only be made within 8 working days of receipt of goods. We will repair or replace any parts complained of at the manufacturer's discretion.

It is the customer's responsibility to check the goods on receipt.
